Join us June 14 for our Ft. Knox Chapter AUSA General Membership Meeting and celebration of the 246th Birthday of the United States Army

Featuring Keynote Speaker:

Deputy Commanding General, ARNG, V Corps
MAJOR GENERAL ROBERT D. BURKE

Major General Robert D. Burke assumed duties as the Deputy Commanding General of V Corps in January 2021. Prior to his arrival at Fort Knox, Major General Burke served as the Deputy Chief of Staff, NATO Multi-National Corps N-E, Szczecin, Poland. Major General Burke's previous command and staff assignments include Special Assistant to the DARNG for Mobilization and Readiness, Arlington, Virginia; Executive Officer, 81st Troop Command Indianapolis, Indiana; Commander, 1-152 Calvary Squadron, 76th Infantry Brigade, New Albany, Indiana and Iraq; and Commander, 1st Battalion, 151 Infantry, 76th Infantry Brigade, New Albany, Indiana.

Major General Burke commissioned as an Armor Officer and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Norwich University. His military schooling includes the Armor Officer Basic Course, the Infantry Officer Advanced Course, Resident Intermediate Level Education at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, the United States Army Command and General Staff College, the United States Army War College, and the Army Senior Leader Development Seminar.

Major General Burke's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Iraq and Afghanistan Campaign Medals, Ranger Tab, Combat Infantryman Badge, Parachutist Badge, and Pathfinder Badge.
